

DALETECH QUALITY POLICY

It is the policy of Daletech Electronics to design, manufacture and supply electronic components and associated products to a high level of workmanship and quality which will be a guarantee to our customers that the completed work will be acceptable and will meet with their continually changing requirements.

Daletech Electronics Ltd led by the management team is committed to our objectives of;

- a) To maintain the quality management system to meet the objectives of ourselves our customers and of BS EN ISO 9001:2008.
- b) To comply with all statutory and regulatory requirements placed on the company
- c) The continual enhancement of customer perception and satisfaction, by accurate assessment and fulfilment of customer needs and expectations.
- d) For on going business objectives see the current Business Plan.

The quality system is maintained and reviewed by the Daletech management team ensuring resulting actions promote continual improvement.

This Quality Manual will be made available to all members of the company who are aware of the importance of adhering to company quality management system.

Signed
Title	Managing Director
Date	